

Description

A label is pasted on the back or side of a graphic operator interface. A model number can be checked with it.

If you have no idea which is a model number checking with the label, please write down all the information you can get on the label and contact your local Pro-face office with it.